

'MENTAL HEALTH AWARENESS' TRAINING FOR PROFESSIONALS

VENUE: Youth Enquiry Service (Y.E.S)
Trinity Street, Colchester

DATE: 5th March 2018 TIME: 9.45am - 3.30pm

Learn the risk factors for mental health and addiction concerns.

We will be looking at the differences between positive mental health and mental health problems and how these problems exhibit themselves.

We will also be looking at the potential causes of mental health problems and will be open to discussion on this. We will then end on how to identify poor mental health before it develops into a mental health problem and what can be done to help/treatments.

This training can be done in combination with the Resilience training as a two part training or on its own and separate.

Cost:

£120 pp to be paid in advance of course date. Discounts for group bookings.
20% discount for NEETSA schools/charities/social enterprises.
